Chapter Quizzes (5 percent)
All 12 chapters in the text have a corresponding chapter quiz in Canvas. You have only one opportunity to do the quiz; however, you may use your textbook while you complete the quiz.

Exams (30 percent)
You have three exams on the chapter content that are closed-book exams. Each exam consists of multiple choice questions that are randomly selected from a database of questions. Each exam also includes 1 or 2 short essay question (1 or 2 paragraphs) on each chapter. These exams will be taken in a Weber State Approved Testing Center. The three exams and corresponding chapters are listed below:

- Exam 1 (Chapters 1, 2, 3, and 7)
- Exam 2 (Chapters 4, 5, 6, and 8)
- Exam 3 (Chapters 9, 10, 11, and 12)

Messages (10 percent)
You will write several messages in routine, persuasive, and bad news style using letter, memorandum, and email styles.

Formal Report (20 percent)
One of two major assignments for this course is the formal report that includes a written as well as an oral component. There will be several smaller assignments given to help you create your report. The grades of all of these assignments will be part of the 20 percent. Specific instructions for these assignments can be found in Canvas in individual assignments and on the Formal Report Page.

Team Report (10 percent)
The second major assignment for this course is the group report that also includes a written as well as an oral component. The details of this assignment will be given in Canvas in the individual assignments and on the Team Report Page.

Employment (10 percent)
This group of assignments will require you to interview an HR specialist. You will then use the things you learn in this interview to compose a cover letter and resume as well as do an exercise on interviewing for this section.

Grammar and Punctuation Exam/Business Writing Basics (10 percent)
This part includes the final exam, which is based upon the business writing basics in the appendix of your text (8 percent of the grade.) You will also complete quizzes that are included in the appendix of your textbook:

- Sentence structure
- Punctuation
- Case
- Agreement
- Tense
- Numbers
- Capitalization
- Language
- Length

These quizzes may be taken multiple times, and your highest score will be used for your grade. Although these are only 2 percent of your grade, you will find them very helpful in knowing the grammar and punctuation rules you will need for your written assignments as well as the final grammar/punctuation exam.
You also have access to a Grammar pretest in Canvas that will let you know how well you already know the material. You may take the pretest multiple times to assist in your learning of the grammar/punctuation rules as well as preparing you for the final.

Participation Activities (5 percent)
Since class participation is essential for learning, you receive credit for participating in these exercises. These exercises will include discussions, peer reviews, and posting comments in GoReact. Because the timeliness of these assignments is critical in order for peer interaction, pay close attention to deadlines. No make-up work is available for these assignments.

Notes:
All assignments are to be keyboarded in a professional manner and will be graded on content, organization, completeness, grammar, punctuation, and spelling.

The last day to withdraw from this class is Sept 19, 2016.

Any student requiring accommodations or services due to a disability must contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) in room 181 of the Student Service Center. SSD can also arrange to provide course materials (including this syllabus) in alternative formats if necessary.

No late work is accepted without prior approval from the instructor. Late work is subject to a 10 percent late penalty per day and must be completed within one week of deadline. No late tests may be taken after the deadline unless a student has extenuating circumstances such as a car accident or hospital emergency. Notification to the instructor must be made within 24 hours of scheduled test date. Late tests that have instructor approval are subject to a 20 percent late penalty and must be completed within one week of scheduled test date.

Students are expected to complete their own work. If you are caught cheating in this course, you will be subject to academic discipline including the imposition of University sanctions. A description of cheating and possible sanctions is found in the WSU Student Code available on the WSU home page, at the office of the Vice President for Student Services, and at the WSUSA Office.
